Stranger Is

Suspicious

Character

Let's confine the current anti-Communist drive to our own people. You're a traitor only when you go back on your own country—and to uncover traitors is the sole purpose of the present hue and cry.

But provincialism crops out in all people in moments of fear or excitement, and we stray from our original purpose. First thing you know we get ourselves into that well-known frame of mind which makes every stranger a suspicious character.

This we have the case of a couple of Department of State employees going to a Senate subcommittee charging that the United Nations organization over here is bringing into our midst additional Communists and spies.

Secretary Marshall denies this, strenuously defending the integrity of the United Nations. I am in the secretary's corner—definitely.

You can't operate the United Nations without a central office, and if the central office happens to be in America then America is going to be a lot of strangers.

But not all strangers are Communists—in fact, I think you will agree with me that these being people in more or less official positions of their own countries it is extremely improbable that very many of them are revolutionaries.

Finally, how do you expect a United Nations to be successful if a country as big and powerful and supposedly civilized as the United States is suddenly turns childish and begins to suspect every person whose father and grandfather aren't immediately identifiable?

We've done enough if we ferret out the traitors of our own language and nationality. For when we've done that we will have strengthened our position that we don't have much to fear from foreigners—whether friendly or otherwise.

Bigtime Politicos Took Over In Belated Boom for Ike

By JAMES T. FARRIS

The beginning of the Eisenhower-for-President boom was heartfelt and spontaneous. Scarcely since Washington's time had there been such a surge of popular enthusiasm for a leader. It overrode party lines, and the political machinery within those lines. Most Eisenhower supporters didn't seem to care who ticket the general ran on, so long as he ran.

General Eisenhower turned down the bid for his own good reason. It was graceful, polite refusal, but it was definite. The majority of the general's backers accepted it reluctantly, but also with conviction that it was honest and sincere.

Then came the belated Eisenhower-for-President boom by the professional politicians. This, too, seemed a sincere and heartfelt bid to General Eisenhower to reconsider his refusal. And it was very sincere, but it was unfeeling. And it was any doubt remaining in the general's mind, this professional boom must have settled it once and for all.

The boom was a bid for victory at any price. The southern politicians clearly wanted a man who was not committed to a "civil rights" program, though they had scant reason for believing that General Eisenhower would dedicate himself to preserving the present racial-political setup.

The bosses from the big northern cities were as obviously interested in self-protection. They had been having some disquieting thoughts about defeat—defeat that would mean the end of their political and social patronage, and consequent loss of personal power.

In short, the professional politicians wanted a winner.

If General MacArthur or Admiral Nimitz or some other war hero had excited a similar popular enthusiasm, they certainly would have gone for any one of them. And the GOP professionals in a similar fix.

Ford Strike Threat Is Eliminated

Detroit, July 22 — (AP) — A 12-cent an hour wage increase for 116,000 CIO production workers today erased a national strike threat against the Ford Motor Company.

Climaxing more than 21 hours of nearly continuous negotiation, the CIO United Auto Workers also won increases in premium pay, vacation improvements, and a group insurance plan revision.

The union estimated these "fringe" benefits would total an additional 3 1/2 to 4 cents an hour. The UAW-CIO also estimated the annual increased cost of Ford of the new contract at $22,000,000. Details of the revised contract, which expires July 15, 1949, were revealed jointly by the union and the company.

Ford's agreement with the UAW-CIO was the last among the auto industry's "big three." It set a peaceful stage for the country's major producers to maintain high production at least until the summer of 1949.

General Motors Corp. and Chrysler Corp. signed the UAW-CIO raises. GM signed to a sliding increase that raised pay of its workers by 11 cents an hour and geared future adjustment to the cost of living index.

18-Year-Olds Complain the Law Doesn't Give Enough of Them a Chance to Volunteer

Washington, July 22 — (AP) — Complaints from many 18-year-olds that they are being squeezed out of a chance to volunteer for military service seemed likely today to get attention at the special session of Congress.

Staff aides of Chairman Gurney (R-S.D.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee said he already has asked Secretary of Defense Forrestal for a report on possible changes in the Selective Service Act.

Thousands of the teen-agers jammed recruiting stations yesterday to sign up for a one-year term in the armed forces, thus avoiding a draft call for 21 months service when they turn 19. However, Congress said only 161,000 may be accepted during the next year, and there are an estimated 1,200,000 in this age bracket now.

Without Even a Cowbell, Yet

When Lindley Armstrong Jones married Helen Grayco in Beverly Hills, Calif., all the characters were disappointed. The Wedding March was played straight—no horns, whistles, shots or even one dinky cowbell. Lindley is better known as Spike, leader of the wackiest band in the land. Helen is his featured vocalist. No cowbells, maybe, but pipe off that necktie.

Bloodhounds on Trail of Pair From Tucker Farm

Tucker Prison Farm, July 22 — (UP) — A posse of 30 officers led by bloodhounds continued their search today for two convicts who escaped from a Tucker prison farm work detail yesterday.

The men were identified as Rado Sevid, alias Ray Smith, 37, sentenced to five years for grand larceny from Miller county in 1946; and David Dyer, 29, sentenced to 15 years for kidnapping and robbery from Boone county in 1947.

Eleven state patrolmen, joined prison officials and Jefferson county officers in the search. State police reported today that several "good leads" had been picked up.

500 Take Blood Tests in Factories

Over 500 persons took Free Blood Tests in Hope industries during the day and a half of the Testing Campaign, officials of the health department stated today. This represents a large majority of persons that are employed in these plants.

"We are well pleased with the response to the blood testing program," Miss Philomena Lenz, public health nurse said. "Because it shows that the people of Hope are conscious that venereal disease is a health problem and that taking a test is no reflection on their character."

Biggest day for the program will be this Saturday, July 24, when Free Clinics will be held in Hope at three locations. Main place will be in a Health Tent located just west of the Missouri Pacific Railroad Station. Other clinics will be held at Shaws Night Club from 12 noon until 4 p.m. for residents in that area and at Calvin Douglas Night Club from 4 p.m. until 8 p.m. for residents living in the north end.

Health officials hope for a large turnout at the Hope clinics in view of the cooperation of the industries. They urge all persons who got their blood tested to get their blood re-tested.

At the special session further expansion of the program was discussed. A larger number of 18-year-olds would require more regulars to train them, thus reducing the combat strength of the armed forces.

The one-year volunteers cannot be sent outside this country, except for brief training cruises or flights by those in the navy and air force. But draftees can be dispatched on any overseas assignment.

Meanwhile Selective Service officials sped preparations to start registering those men 19 through 25 who will be subject to a draft call.

Registrations will begin August 29 and continue through September 18, with induction of qualified men to start at some later date.

Seek Clues in 3 Murders at Reformatory

Mansfield, O., July 22 — (UP) — Shocked law enforcement officers today threw all their resources into one of the greatest Midwest manhunts to find the kidnap killers of John Niebel, his wife and daughter.

The Niebel home, only a few steps from the Mansfield reformatory farm where the 50-year-old Niebel had been superintendent for 20 years, was being combed for fingerprints and other clues. Print marks already uncovered were checked against those of former inmates of the prison farm.

Police in five states—Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania—were alerted to look for the cold-blooded killers in what local officials said was the biggest manhunt since John Dillinger and his gang rampaged through the area in 1934.

Finding of the nude bodies of the Niebel family in an isolated cornfield near here late yesterday, torn by bullets, shocked every veteran policeman. All had been shot.

Niebel and his wife, Nola, 32, had both been shot twice, and Phyllis, 22, once. Authorities said all were kidnaped from their home, stripped in their abductors' car, then shot to death as they huddled in the back seat.

Police said a 25-caliber automatic was the weapon used to kill the three persons in what they termed a "frightful crime done methodically."

Police said that Miss Niebel, an abundant red hair still in curlers, also had been beaten savagely about the head and may have been raped.

Authorities estimated the abduction took place shortly after midnight, some 12 to 14 hours before the bodies were found by Robert Koeller, 18, a camp counselor out on a hike with a group of boys.

Chief Frank Robinson said a neighbor had seen a car, with lights off, parked near Niebel's home at about 2 a. m.

The neighbor, Robinson said, investigators said he also had seen lights in the Niebel house and that after they had been extinguished at approximately 2:30 a. m. the unidentified car had driven off.

Expert witnesses said they found strange marks on various parts of the house which had been ransacked by the killers. The prints, they said, would be compared with those of inmates recently paroled from the reformatory.

Robinson said he felt certain "vengeance seeking" former inmate would be caught.

Victor Cobb today moved his Cobb's Radio Sales and Service business into the miniature two-story structure, vacating his former premises on South Walnut street. The new address is 200 South Main street, and it's complete with sign and everything.

Mr. Cobb's associates are: Ray Martin, in the radio repair end of the business; and Miss Betty Martin, in charge of records and sales. Miss Martin is on the ground floor with the display cases, and Mr. Cobb and Mr. Martin upstairs in the repair department. The business handles Stromberg-Carlson RCA-Victor radios and phonographs, and Decca, Capitol, MGM and other lines of records.

The child was taken later today to University hospital in Little Rock, in a Herndon-Cornell ambulance.

29 Fugitives From Behind Russian Iron Curtain Seek Admission to United States

Provincetown, Mass., July 22 — (AP) — Twenty-nine fugitives from behind the Soviet iron curtain set out for Boston today with a prayer that God "who sailed with us" across the Atlantic will help them win admission to the United States.

Skipper John Rosenberg, 63, said none of the 15 men, seven women and seven children aboard his 64-foot ketch Gundel had a visa or an entry permit.

That faith, plus a battered sextant and a wristwatch, he said, guided them in a 43-day crossing of the Atlantic to Provincetown harbor where another group of pilgrims once set foot in the new world 328 years ago.

Rosenberg said there also was fear—a terror of being sent back to the Baltic lands they fled.

It could mean the concentration camp and death," he said.

The 23 Latvians, two Swedes, a Lithuanian and a Russian aboard the Gundel were forbidden to land by Coast guard authorities ordered after their arrival yesterday. They remained aboard and gave them 24 hours to clear the harbor and proceed to Boston for examination by immigration officials.

The fugitives, their empty larder replenished by kindly donors and their auxiliary engine fuel tanks filled by the coast guard, prepared and signed a sort of "Mayflower compact" before sailing for Boston.

The document told how they fled their Soviet dominion, homes four years ago because "we did not want to die in concentration camps."

They said they found sanctuary for a time in Sweden, but later found "we could not trust the Swedish foreign policy" and decided to leave.

"So everybody here has spent his savings and made loans to buy this little ship and come over here in hope of finding a new home-land in the United States where we can earn an honest living and be free from fear."

New Orleans, July 22 — (UP) — When Charlie the mole gets permission to walk out of jail, he'll be wearing new shoes And one for each foot, too.

Charlie was juggled last week when police found he had set up housekeeping in a collar of a police station. Among his effects were four shoes, all for the right foot.

An Ann Arbor, Mich., resident who read of the Hobo hotel and sympathized with Charlie yesterday sent $10 to Judge Harold Moore, who had put Charlie away. He asked the money be spent on shoes for the prisoner.

Moore said it wouldn't be fair to turn the cash over to Charlie. He said a new pair of shoes will buy him a pair of $9 shoes and a pair of $1 socks.

Truman to Confer With All Groups

Washington, July 22 — (AP) — President Truman said today he will talk with Democratic leaders of the opposition in his message to Congress.

He told a news conference he is ready to talk with whatever groups Senator J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman, brings to the White House.

McGrath said after a conference at the White House yesterday that representatives of divergent views will be included in the groups he planned to bring in.

Truman said that for any Democrats who have been opposing Mr. Truman's candidacy, he said all elements of the party would be "welcome at the White House talks."

Mr. Truman declined to say in his news conference to discuss the contents of the special message he will deliver personally before the extra session of Congress next Tuesday.

Asked if that meant he would recommend a reimposition of price controls and rationing, Mr. Truman said again that his message will speak for itself.

Mr. Truman said he has no intention of detailing the international situation in his message to Congress. He told reporters, however, that he thinks the prospects for peace were excellent.

While his press secretary, Charles G. Ross, has said passage of civil rights legislation will be a high priority for Congress, Mr. Truman would not go into that either.

A reporter said there has been much speculation as to the reason for Mr. Truman calling Congress back. He asked whether the president might want to elaborate on that.

Mr. Truman said he had set out his reasons very carefully in his speech to the Democratic convention. He said Ross has been giving reporters a fill-in from time to time on his legislative proposals.

He would not comment on an assertion by Herbert Brownell, Jr., Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's campaign manager, that his would be a "rump session."

Chance for Peace Good, Says Truman

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, July 22 — (AP) President Truman said today he thinks the chances for world peace are excellent.

He endorsed fully Secretary of State Marshall's declaration that the United States intends to exhaust every resource of diplomacy for a peaceful solution of the Berlin crisis.

Marshall also emphasized yesterday the United States will not be "coerced or intimidated" by the Soviet blockade of the German capital.

Shortly after Mr. Truman spoke at a news conference, he met with Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the American commander in Germany. Clay flew home yesterday for conferences on the Berlin situation.

Marshall and high-ranking military leaders making up the National Security Council sat in to hear Clay's report.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters the council gathering was "not in the nature of a crisis meeting." Ross described it as a "regular session of the council to which Clay was invited."

The council includes Secretary of Defense Forrestal and heads of the army, navy and air force.

Mr. Truman said flatly he will not discuss the Berlin situation with any other aspect of foreign affairs in his message to Congress next week.

He first responded with a no comment reply when asked "what do you make of the Berlin situation?" But later on, the president reminded him that from time to time he had given his idea of the prospects for attaining world peace. The reporter asked "what is your estimate of the chances for world peace now?"

Mr. Truman replied at once he thinks the chances for world peace are good. In fact, he hastened to add, he thinks they're excellent.

Secretary Marshall made a statement on that yesterday, Mr. Truman said, adding he is in complete agreement.

He was then asked whether he meant Marshall's statement that the United States intends to do everything possible to work out a peaceful settlement of the Berlin problem.

Still a third question was put to him on the subject. When he spoke about the chances for world peace, did he mean the formal organization of a new following World War II or the prospects for avoiding another war.

Again he repeated that he thinks the chances of world peace are good—just as good as they've ever been and he thinks the world will get peace eventually.

The president also was asked whether he would welcome a debate on international questions at a special session of Congress beginning Monday, said that it is up to Congress itself.

James "Uncle Mac" MacKrell

All of us use and pay for our roads. All of our roads are built and maintained by the State Highway Dept., a private contractor or our County Judges.

In the most these three groups have worked separately and against each other. I know how to get a majority of each group to work together.

If you employ me as your governing I will get the Legislature to buy two of the largest rock crushers available and an asphalt plant. We will crush train load after train load of granite and limestone rock, and I will personally guarantee that each county has all of the crushed rock and asphalt it needs.

I will have all of the County Judges, State Highway Engineers, and Private Contractors meet me for a conference as these are the men who actually do the work. We will take up the road problems of each county one by one, and solve them without additional taxes or bonds. I know I can get a majority of these three groups to work together as a team. We will eliminate all graft, as much waste as possible, and achieve an efficient road system.

We will grade and gravel all main and bus routes first, blacktop all state highways within two years without additional taxes or bonds. Tonight the quarter one report will be at Booneville. Don't forget our State-Wide Rally at Abbeville tomorrow night.

Clarksville vs. Merchants 8:30 Tonight

The Hope Merchants Softball team will have their hands full tonight when they take on the strong Clarksville team, at 8:30 at the Hope Fairpark. The largest crowd of the season is expected to witness the affair that promises to be a tough one from start to finish. Each team will be trying hard to win one since each has won one game. The Merchants should be at full strength and ready for a hard game.

Fred Robertson said that in a telephone conversation with Roy Erwin, manager of the Clarksville team, Mr. Erwin stated the Hope boys were the best sports, the umpires, and fans the best that he had played before his season. Magnolia also made the same statement. Both teams are anxious to play again.

The game tonight will begin shortly after the Oren Harris political rally and there will not be any conflict in the two programs. The game will likely be broadcast over KXAR.

Mapes and Phil Rizzuto homered for the Yankees, more than making up for a two-run clout by Boudreau in the first inning. Ed Lopat scattered six hits for his seventh straight triumph.

The Yankees had an 8-4 lead going into the seventh frame of the second game but couldn't hold it. Joe Judge was rapped justly in a relief chore, leaving the game with the score tied and two men on base in the eighth. Karl Drews took over and walked Pinchhitter Wally Judnich. Then Jim Hegan delivered a grand slam for the ball game, 12-4.

Philadelphia ran into disaster at Shibe Park where the St. Louis Browns pounded 21 hits to win 17-3.

Washington's Walt Masterson got by with a 12-hitter as the Senators dumped Detroit, 6-1.

Brooklyn's surge again featured the National League doings as the Trojans won a pair from Chicago, 9-3 and 7-1, clipping Boston's lead to six games.

Ralph Branca had little trouble pitching win No. 12 in the opener. The Trojans were held hitless for 5 1/3 innings by Bob McCall in the second game. They finally broke loose for four runs in the sixth, including Gene Hermanski's homer with two on.

Warren Spahn pitched steady, effective seven-inning ball as the Boston Braves downed Cincinnati, 6-2. Blackwell struck out nine but dished up home run balls to Earl Torgeson and Jeff Heath.

Harry Brecheen turned in a brilliant effort for St. Louis, striking out 10 New York Giants, in earning his 10th win by an 8-4 score. The Cards exploded six runs in the seventh to drive Ray Poat from the box.

The Phillies shaded Pittsburgh, 3-2 in 10 innings despite the first major league homer by Elmer Riddle, veteran Pirate pitcher. Johnny Blatnik's triple and Eddie Cressley's home run were the trick, adding Elmer Singleton with the loss on relief.

8th Round of Public Links Tourney

Atlanta, July 22 — (AP) — The National Public Links golf tournament, down to eight matches this morning, swung into the fifth round with five players leading as gallery favorites.

Defending Champion Wilfred Crossley, the Brooklyn insurance man, headed the list.

His opponent this morning was Ralph F. Schneider of Staker Heights, Ohio.

In another match, Aubrey Turpin, of Tulsa, Ok., and Ben Hughes, Portland, Ore., both golfers have been voted as darkhorses since the second round.

Turrentine gives a fancy "each time" the lives with a showy footwork involving a kick which he claims gives him added power. In addition he uses a cross-handed grip.

Michael R. Ferentz, a Long Beach, Calif., bowler, faced 21 year old groovy boy Lido F. Landi of San Francisco.

Another of the gallery's favorites is Charlie Makaiwa, a Honolulu civil service clerk.

The tall, muscular Makaiwa, was paired with Sgt. Alton Age of Louisville, Ky.

Hogan, Mangrum in First Round of Duel at Reading

Reading, Pa., July 22 — Ben Hogan and Lloyd Mangrum brought their duel for golf's money winning honors down to the Berkshire Country Club's long fairways and well-trapped greens today in the first round of the $15,000 Reading Open tournament.

Nearly 150 other top ranking pros and amateurs also have entered the four-day tourney but Hogan, U. S. Open and PGA titlist, and the long-hitting Mangrum are favored.

In addition to Hogan and Mangrum, the field includes Bobby Locke, Skip Alexander, Jimmy Demaree, Johnny Palmer, Dutch Harrison, Cary Middlecott, Clayton Kopp, and George Harbert. First prize will be $2,500.

Harrison won last year with a seven under par 277.

Red Sox Catch Up With Yanks

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe McCarthy finally has caught the New York Yankees, the club his Boston Red Sox consider "the team to beat" for the American League flag.

By winning a day-night doubleheader from lowly Chicago while New York and Cleveland were splitting a pair, the Red Sox last night moved into the third-place tie with the world champs.

Tex Hughson came into pitch the ninth inning of last night's game with Chicago, picking up the verdict when the Red Sox rallied for three runs in the last of the ninth.

He was handed the locals in their one-on-one duel. They had won the afternoon half by a 3-1 score for Joe Dobson's 12th success.

Sam Mele kept the Sox in the night game with a two-run homer in the third after Bobby Doerr doubled in the bases loaded. Mele doubled in the ninth, and they had won the afternoon half by a 3-1 score for Joe Dobson's 12th success.

Leading hitters for Hope were: Beasley with four out of six; LaGrone with two triples; Sutton with three out of seven; and Russell, also with three out of seven.

At the stadium New York ganged up on the Tribe in the first inning, scoring three runs on a decision error by Bob Muncrief.

Mackenzie Ponders Paradox of U. S. Chasing Home Reds as UN Harbors Still More

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The question before the House is this: When is a Red not a Red, or do Communists who are bent on mischief always give warning by displaying the Red danger sign?

It's an ironic circumstance—though perhaps not strange—that while twelve top leaders of the U. S. Communist party were being indicted on charges of advocating the overthrow of the Washington government by force there should also arise the pressing query of whether foreign Communist delegations in the United Nations are a threat to American security.

There is a divergence of testimony to the peace of organization. Last week two State Department officials testified before a Senate judiciary subcommittee that hundreds of foreign agents may be operating subversively in the United States on U. N. credentials. The officials were Robert U. Alexander, assistant chief of the State Department visa division, and William Harlow, chief of the department's diplomatic visa section.

Yesterday Secretary of State Marshall in effect disavowed this testimony. He told a news conference that he didn't know of any case in which a foreigner coming to America for the U. N. had in any way threatened American security. He said while he hadn't read the record he was under the impression that the testimony of Alexander and Harlow was contrary to his own information.

All this is highly interesting, though rather confusing, in view of the widespread belief among observers that wherever a Communist pitches his tent he immediately starts subversive activities for her career despite her infirmity, filed suit yesterday. She asked custody and support of their adopted son, Timothy, 2, but requested only $1 monthly alimony for herself. A property settlement has been agreed upon.

Miss Peters, 27, and Quine, 28, separated last March. They were married here in 1943.

Moscow. There is no indication whether the Senate subcommittee considered the activities of employees in the numerous diplomatic and consular headquarters maintained by Russia and her satellites in this country. Aptly of this, one is reminded of the great Communist spy ring which was directed from the Soviet embassy in Ottawa. The operations of this ring were far flung and included the United States.

As regards the Communist leaders indicted in the United States, they deny that the party is engaged in subversive activities or that it takes orders from Moscow. That being so it would make the American Communist party unique, since it is common knowledge that all other Red parties are under the direction of the Cominform which gets its instructions from Moscow.

The whole history of communism since the Bolshevik revolution of 1917 is one of efforts to overthrow foreign governments. It was because of subversive propaganda from Moscow that Russia wasn't recognized until 1933. And there was a fierce diplomatic conflict between Britain and the Soviet government over subversive Red activities in England.

But why the employment of force to establish a Soviet regime, why not do it through the ballot box? The answer is that Bolshevism calls for bloodshed and terrorism in order to impress the proletariat with the nature of the change. As the Encyclopedia Britannica puts it: "x x x modern communism regards revolution as necessary and a period of dictatorship of the proletariat based on open terror as the only means of creating the Socialist economic and social system."

The law under which the American Communist leaders have been indicted was passed in 1940. Among other things it makes it unlawful for any person "to knowingly or willfully advocate, abet, advise, or teach the duty, necessity, desirability, or propriety of overthrowing or destroying any government in the United States by force x x x."

This is a violation of the law for any person to advocate the establishment of a government after the manner we have seen employed in Czechoslovakia and in other helpless countries which Moscow has been taking over by strong-arm methods. The Moscow brand of communism has no more legal rights in the United States than did Al Capone.

18-Year-Olds Welcome to Volunteer

Washington, July 21 (AP) — The armed forces opened their ranks today for 161,000 American 18-year-olds to volunteer for a special one-year hitch and thus avoid a two-year draft later.

The volunteers may, up to a point, pick the branch of service they wish to join. But the new draft law limits the annual total of the special enlistments to 110,000 for the army, 36,000 for the navy, including 6,000 for the marines, and 15,000 for the air force.

For the first four weeks, beginning today, the army will accept 10,000 men; the navy-marines 3,000, and the air force 1,300. Enlistments will be conducted by regular recruiting officers and qualified youths will be accepted in the order in which they apply.

After their one year's service to be confined to the continental limits of the United States — the 18-year-olds must spend from four to six years in an organized reserve unit.

The peacetime draft law requires that all male civilians, 18 through 25, must register, but none can be drafted until reaching the age of 19. Registration will start August 19, beginning with men of 25 and working down to the 18-year-olds who will begin registering on September 17.

Armed forces officials estimate it will be a month or six weeks before they can set up machinery to govern classification and deferments.
